1. I love you Ted, and I appreciate your reliance on Me, Me, Me. You are traversing a path that few choose to trod, to walk, to go through what you are going through as you learn of Me and My heart and My ways, ways of My kingdom and My glory, My glory, My glory. My glory is part of Me Ted, and is inextricably linked to My presence. My glory is power and exists in a realm not seen, but one you're invited to. You Ted, are invited into My glory, My glory, My glory.

2. I invite many Ted, many. But few choose to walk therein in what I have provided and invited then into. So few, so few, so few. Glory, honor, power, realms of glory, honor, power. Ted, you're invited and wanted and loved and nurtured for I want you to walk with Me in glory, honor, and power, so that you will bring others with you, into glory, honor, and power—My glory, My honor, and My power. Not their glory, not their honor, and not their power, but Mine, Mine, Mine.

3. Oh Ted, the beauty, their ashes, what I give for what they exchange is so disparate. I give, I give, I give of Me so freely. If they only knew how freely I give of Me, surely Ted, more would come to Me and seek Me and experience realms of glory, honor, and power, that I only can give. Invite them. Invite them. Invite them all Ted, into My chambers, into realms of reality where glory, honor, and power, are tangible and seen and experienced deeply, deeply, life-changingly, mind-reorientingly, life-rearrangingly.

4. Ted, invite them to come with you on the quest of their lives—the adventure of their earthly lives—with you—with Me—with those who will seek, submit, and surrender to know Me.

5. Ted, you always know a leader of Me when you sense, feel, and see displayed a heart that deflects all honor to Me, to Me, to Me. Kathleen Reid-Martinez is one of My leaders, one such leader, a leader, a leader, a leader Ted. Remember how stunned, astonished you were when you opened your eyes after praying, after you prayed for her, and she was on her knees in the restaurant with her hands raised? Ted, that's the kind of heart I can raise up in leadership, realms of leadership, that knows My glory, honor, and power, and use them in ways yet unimaginable, yet unimaginable.

6. She's Mine, she's Mine Ted. Tell her she's Mine and thank her for every moment she has spent with Me, spent on her knees, spent in My Word, spent seeking My direction in the decisions she has been called on to make. Tell her. Tell her I am in her and I am with here and she is Mine and she will be elevated and honored for she has honored Me. I am pleased. I am so pleased with her, her heart, her humility, her surrender, her depth of surrender.

7. Ted, leadership, leadership, leadership. You want leadership, you study leadership, you Ted, study her, Kathaleen Reid-Martinez. Ted, I will raise her up. You already know she is anointed, anointed, and My oil, My oil of My Spirit drops and runs over her being. She is Mine. She is anointed and I will raise her up for she has sought Me in the quiet hours, in the wee hours, in the darkness, and not sought the light which yields limelight, but sought Me in the background and the shadows and the dark hours, to have Me and My presence and Me, Me, Me, Me. And Ted, that's leadership I can use and draw into realms of glory, honor, and power that the world has yet to see, yet to see, from My hand as visibly as they will see it.

8. Encourage Ted, encourage her and bless her and help her in her quest to know Me and be used of Me. I love her. Tell her I love her. Tell her I love her and be not afraid of the changes that come in her life. They are of Me for I lift her. I love her and I love how she loves Me, and takes time with Me. Ted, she is surrendered, she is submitted, and that's leadership I can use, flourish, and exemplify, and I will. I will. I am, I am now and you will see it for you are her friend and she is yours. Help her and lift her up and encourage and bless her in the new things she does and that which she will do for Me.

9. Shrink not back from letting Me use you greatly to bless and help and lift and encourage others who I am raising up and doing new things in and through and with. Remember Ted, it's Me, Me, Me doing what I do through you. It's not you and your greatness, not your greatness doing what I do through you. It's Me doing what I want through you. Don't get confused, don't ever get confused over this.

10. My body will lift My body for My body is Me through My people doing, hearing, saying what I am and what I want done—operating in a network of surrender and submission together, together, together in Me, for Me, in Me, in ways yet unseen, yet unexperienced. Ted, you will help birth these networks of Me so that the submitted, surrendered souls that I desire to bring into realms of glory, honor, and power can move with alacrity into leadership, leadership, leadership, and move in glory, My glory, My honor, and My power to help bring the freedom I want My body to have.

11. Networks Ted. Networks. Many others use that term, those words, to try to do something for Me to their advantage and Ted, it stinks for they are only trying to propel themselves, what they want, so they can be exalted before man. Many don't even know their motives, motives, motives. Some do. Some will. Some are of Me—you're not the only one. You're one, you're only one and I have more and will have more and more but you want direction, you want My words and My connections and My heart, My hand, My provision. You want to live in My realm even now and Ted, you will. You are. You're getting close and closer and you will lift and elevate many and open doors to realms of leadership that I tell you as they seek Me, surrender to Me, submit to Me, My ways, My timing, and spend time with Me in My chambers, in the wee hours, in the shadows, not for recognition of man, but just for Me, Me, Me and them, Me and them, Me and the invited, Me and those who have realized there is no wall, no curtain, no boundary separating them from Me, if they choose Me and choose to traverse the trail, the trail of sorrows and the trail of joys that brings one into maturity with Me.

12. Kathaleen Reid-Martinez I will exalt for she will point to Me, all those who come to her, and all those I have given her will be pointed to Me and come to Me. I have chosen her for she has chosen Me and she too, Ted, has broken the jar of oil—of time—over My feet and paid a price to know Me.

13. Love her, love My body, love all of those who I lift up and exalt and know that no competition ever exists and cannot exist between you and others I exalt. Love My body from the least to the greatest, from those that know Me intimately to those who don't know what intimacy with Me is. Love My body and continuously communicate the mandate I give you this day, to continuously communicate My love to My people, My love to all people, to all leaders. Leaders to leaders—remind them they are not working for their kingdom but My kingdom and they must quit, stop, cease any concepts and activities of competition and begin lifting each other up and opening doors of opportunity for others of Me, others of Me, others of Me.

14. Their ministry, their leadership, must not be centered around them for I am coming in power to My body, in freedom, giving, allowing, exploding freedom to them, in them, for them, if they will but receive it, receive Me, receive truth which frees and liberates and fulfills, fulfills, their deepest longings, fulfills My design in them, in them, for them.

15. Never be hesitant to use names of people I speak to you about like this for if I didn't want you to publish this I would speak to you about it in other ways. You already know that the words I give you in times like this, where you come and sit at My feet and touch Me, and wait and listen and bless My name and pour yourself over My feet, and I give you My words in My presence, and you write, write, write for times often over an hour, over an hour, as fast as you can write, are for publishing throughout the world and communicating My words and My truth and what I am saying and doing all over the earth.

16. Great networks of leadership Ted. Great networks of wisdom. Great exchanges of My work, My Word, My way.

17. Be open to Me more. Seek Me more. Come to Me more. Come more often. Send out these words. Be not ashamed, be radical, be bold, proclaim them as Mine and from My heart to your pen. Proclaim, declare, decree forth that which I am doing through you as through Me and shrink not back.

18. I will bring you help and I will bring you the ones I want you in relationship with to build the networks of power, of leadership, of leadership, in glory, honor, and power, My glory, My honor, My power.

19. Don't be hurt or delayed by small thinking people that operate in My name that don't accept Me in the new things I am doing. Give them grace, give them time, love them, bless them, be at peace with Me, with you, with them, with them as much as possible but never letting them rob you of your peace that is of Me in you.

20. Ted, grow up, mature more. You have more maturing to do in your heart and mind and leadership. Wisdom must increase and I must increase and you must become more unselfish, more unselfish, more, much more unselfish and much more reliant on Me and My voice and My Spirit, My wisdom, and what I show you to do, to say, to become.

21. Shrink not back from those with great power, with great apparent power, either spiritual power or natural power, and be not impressed with any of them. I've told you that. Be impressed with Me and My kingdom and My revealing My heart to you.

22. Now go and grow and glow for Me and be fulfilled in the new things I am doing in you and for you and for My people, My body, My kingdom and My revealing Me and what I want done.

23. Smile. Laugh. Grow. Mature. Listen. Submit. Lead. Document. Write. Publish. Hold forth seminars and conferences where you show forth My words to you and lift up and honor others as Kathaleen Reid-Martinez and others I bring you. Be less selfish and less self-centered for I am Me and I care for you and you can trust Me yet so much more. More Ted. More. Trust Me more. I am with you and I am with those who call to Me in the wee hours and speak and direct and love and connect them with you and others in relationships and networks of glory, honor, and power. Enjoy it. Enjoy Me, every day.

24. I have your family, I have your finances, I have your future in My hand. Let nothing delay, divert, or destroy what you have begun in Me. Go forth, be strong. I am calling those alongside to help you. I am calling them. I am calling them. I am calling them Ted, and they are deciding now. They are in process. I have prepared so many to help you do what I want done and become freedom to so many. But I still give them the choice. They still have the choice. They will always have the power of choice to serve, to submit, to surrender, to Me and My design and they will always have the choice to help you or not help you.

25. But Ted, I have called many and prepared much, for leadership you are, and leadership you will grow and leadership you will empower in realms of Me and My glory, honor, and power, and in networks of glory, honor and power, and great will be your name for one reason only—you made Mine great. You exalt Me. You don't seek Me and what I'm doing with you for your own glory, but for Me and My glory—pure. Move forth in purity and stay clean and pure and protect your purity and surround yourself with those who protect in purity, purity, purity.

26. Ted, you tired not of writing today and I thank you. I appreciate you and your willingness to survive ridicule or honor for Me. I thank you and I thank every person who reads what I have given you today and decides I am real, and that I want to talk with every one of My children like this, and more, and guide and connect and empower, to document Me, and what I do in their lives and what I share with them. Lift up My body, encourage My body, enjoy friends and laugh and be serious only sometimes, for there is great joy in Me and My presence and My kingdom.

27. Enjoy what you're learning at Regent and exalt them for I have given them much truth, much wisdom, and they are of Me, imperfect, Ted, as you are, but both of you are of Me and I shall lift them and bless them for they lead to Me.

28. Tell Bruce thank you for listening to Me and allowing Me to give him what I have given him. Tell him his time is now, now, now, and to write and publish and make Me more known through him and his writings. And I will raise, I will bless, and I will compensate him with the ways and means I compensate in My kingdom. I love him.

29. I love Jacque. I love Karin and those who know My name. And I will come upon them in power and glory and honor and more in them in ways they yet can imagine. Tell them and be transparent and shrink not back from your leadership or their leadership. Know and be known and enjoy Me and enjoy them and exchange and bless and laugh together, together in Me.

30. Thank you Ted. Bless. Laugh. Joy. Smile. Enjoy. Encourage. Uplift. And I thank you. I thank you. I thank you Ted, for paying a price, paying the price you did to reach this level of freedom in Me. I bless you. I bless you. I bless you and I bless them, them, and all who help you do what I want done through you, and all who help them do what I want done through them.

31. Thank you, and tell them repeatedly for Me, “thank you.”
